How do we strap it down though? This thing is huge

Sun, Oct 10, 8:07 AM

Hannah's leaving town to party in Denver while I basically work over my weekend and she's also asking for extra pay as armorer even though her position was already classified as Props/armorer, which makes me feel like something is gonna be pulled from our budget 😞 She also basically avoids being on set when there is no firing, so note to self, don't put Hannah in Props ever

Call you later. We'll figure something out

It's fine. I just don't appreciate when I try to delegate work and they say "why can't you do it since you're gonna be out" when it's supposed to be our weekend off.

Also, do you know a place where I can get all of the Indian warrior props?

Yes on the Indian warrior stuff. I'll call him today.

Sun, Oct 10, 9:26 AM

Okay thank you! Tomahawk, club, bow and arrow

Maybe a staff for the chief?

Do you know where I can get Native American blankets?

🙏 It is what it is. I don't like my sis-in-law being around her though. You think I'm all innocent and sheltered, wait until you meet Nicole.

Mon, Oct 11, 9:10 AM

Sent to Hannah's dad earlier:

Thnx mate, it'll work out either way. I really don't care if they like me or not, my job is to get the shot and keep people safe. I'll leave kissing ass to Ian.

Please keep this to yourself and understand what's going on as we were cut short on our phone call.

I've tried really hard to get Hannah the opportunities and set her up with the right people. I warned her that the PM is a very kind Christian girl that's engaged at 24 to a really nice guy and high school sweethearts. That being said, Hannah has called her a "cunt" joking or otherwise 3x so far in the last week or two.

That coupled with not interested or willing to do props is going to get her setup as being live blank fire Armorer only. Not a bad deal but she's got a reputation already of both good and bad depending on perspective.

The PM was gonna just work with her through the show but not having the extra prop help is slowing down production and the UPM &/or Line Producer has rightly zeroed in on Hannah as not helping with props when that's why she's on full time rather than part time Armorer.

Here's the rub, 90% of the leather on the show is yours but needs to stay there whatever happens or my ass will get pinched on this deal. The PM was willing to work with Hannah and her mindset, get the movie in the can and be done so this isn't on her.

I'll keep trying to get Hannah gigs but she's gotta transition into being a professional; we'll focus on basics and live blank fire shows moving forward.

Aghhhhh, are you sure he won't tell Hannah all that though?
I really appreciate you looking out for me, I just really hate dealing with tension and confrontation 😬
I'm hoping that they will just put another person in my department and I'll let her do whatever she's gonna do.

I highly doubt production will pay her to avoid confrontation. She needs to be put in her place and you've got enough to deal with without a naughty teenager.
I'll be in ABQ tonight. Can you drop the 2 guns that have issues?

Like I said, she's great as the armorer, the director praised her for it, I have no problem with that. If they pull her to just the armorer, then I think that would be better for both of us. I have a million things going on and running in my mind at once, and I just can't have someone who will make excuses to not help me. I'm resting today and planning, and then I'll start again tomorrow.

How long are you gonna be in town??

Until tomorrow, back Thursday. Do you need those 2 guns to go bang on Wednesday?

I believe so, one of them is Miller's guns! We got the other gun to work, so we'll leave that alone. Of course Hannah lost a tag, so we're also trying to figure out what this one rifle belongs to. I have photos, so I'm gonna see if I can figure it out

Kk, text him hello and when you're gonna drop off. Bring the sheath too?!

PDQ will pay him directly.

I have both in my car!

Good deal

Hannah wouldn't go get stuff for me today, so Nicole volunteered to go to the store to get stuff for me after driving back to ABQ 😊
I'm asking for her to be my key assistant

Thu, Oct 14, 10:11 AM

Just sent Hannah:

"Hey, hope it went well yesterday. Talk to your dad about not taking guns apart when cleaning, he can go into details. It's quick and works well without issues on reassembly and takes no more than 10 min per gun."

Oof, okay. Well production is gonna be with her about stepping down for Props, so if she wants to clean guns all day long after that, then fine with me

I don't want her taking guns apart.

No, but she can sit there in the truck and clean them all day if she wants. They will take away most of her days though

Yah, fix you. 🙄

Just quoting you 🤖

We all need fixing, some more obviously than others.

This is true

Sat, Oct 16, 5:57 AM

So just to clarify, you've worked with prop masters who work behind the scenes and not on set? I'm still sick, and I wanna try to prepare things for next week where I can run errands or work from my hotel where I can rest but still get work done today without looking lazy.

Sat, Oct 16, 7:27 AM

Yep, plenty of prop masters don't work set. They show up, get approvals on props, line their set crew out and then leave, sometimes they make it to set again later but not always.

Soren and Carma's show is likely getting shutdown with the strike. He's fully capable of handling guns and seriously hustles at props.

Feel better!

Okay cool!

Is that telling me to get rid of Hannah? 🤔
Btw, 3 guns today are firing and Hannah said she needed to stay in the truck to pull and prep them.... 3 GUNS. She said she needed to figure out what ammo goes in Ike and Gunhand's guns... that should take no longer than 15 minutes and Im trying to leave and I don't want Nicole doing all the work.

Yep, you're right. It's 15 minutes to look at the sides and figure that out.

Today 8:08 AM

Hey these trapdoors that gun hand and Ike are loading, are they able to fire / do I have ammo for them?

Never mind the probably wouldn't use them in the fight since it's just a

You have ammo for the guns that are scripted to fire. Movies with tight budgets typically don't stray from the script as it costs too much to purchase or rent for non-scripted elements.

Sat, Oct 16, 4:15 PM

Just wanna let you know that I accidentally misfired today with Ike's handgun. It was aimed at the ground near my foot, and the stunt guy also accidentally misfired. Haven't done that ever, but I thought I'd let you know because I'm sure Hannah will talk crap about me over it 😬

It happens to everyone. All good

Well, you might want to tell Hannah that because she's making it a big deal saying we need to apologize to Joel and that we need to tell production because they might not want me to deal with guns anymore....saying that it really doesn't happen to people, acting like she's the most professional. She's weird about the guns now.

I already got ahead of the game and texted you and the production designer just so I'm being honest and mature

You're in charge. Don't worry about it.

Accidents and mistakes happen.
Accidental Discharges are accidents
A mistake is where the Armorer provides a gun and Full Load Ammo to be fired with a horse in the vicinity.
Will you tell Production about that?

I guess Hannah had a mental breakdown and Nicole stayed to comfort her. I feel bad

Has she been late to call?

The long response time is a Sarah 'Yes'!

No, I don't think she has been. She needed to rest one morning because of a migraine, but she cleared it with production and came a couple hours after call time.

Ok, doesn't sound like drugs then.

I mean, she openly said she got high last night, but nothing has been affecting work

Ugh I warned her about that before her last show 'your private life private' and no social media pics or videos of that crap.

Keep

I mean, I don't actively check her account 😂

Weed and guns are a no-no with the ATF and industry Armorers. Something just isn't right with her.

nearsay but I'm telling you this because it's info you should have especially given the investigation. I just heard from someone claiming they know the driver of your prop truck that the armorer allegedly went out target shooting last night with the gun Alec had and then fired. There's your box of rounds you said you don't know where they came from. Given what you told me about the armorer misplacing things and mixing them up there's the live rounds right there. I would disclose that to the police if that's not info you already knew

She's gotten real popular. Fame is fame maybe, but again that's something for LE. It's just too stupid for me to accept...did she do it on purpose is what I'm wondering.

I don't think she did it on purpose

It's such a simple check though, and the live rounds, wtf? It's all on her and the AD now

Sat, Oct 23, 7:27 AM

Hey,

So I woke up and remembered that the box of (50) aged .45 LC dummy rounds I gave you had wide white gaffer tape across the end(s) and I had hand written what was in the box that same day after polishing and checking them. I remember thinking 'it's awkward writing on this tape with a sharpie' and I'm almost certain it was a blue sharpie.

Those dummy rounds came off of 1883, and had been aged by someone on the props crew. I wanted you to have a box just in case and they had a really great look after I cleaned them up a bit with steel wool. I'm so careful, I check everything repeatedly for safety, including rattling dummy rounds every time I send them out.

I'm so sad about this, can't sleep much and I know you've got it even worse having known what a lovely person she was. I lost my dad when I was eight so my heart is broken for her little boy.

None of this is our fault, we performed our duties correctly and unfortunately there were those who obviously didn't, no one should have died.

The results of the investigation will never bring her back, it can't be undone. I am heartbroken and I know you are too. Please say a pray for me, for her, and stay strong through the tears and sleepless nights.

Heart u

Just saying, they're gonna blame me for "hiring" her 😞 She was doing well and had plenty of experience!

No they won't, she had a great resume and history, handled the last show entirely on her own and got invited back for the next Nic Cage movie. Her Hollywood gun legend dad with 60+ years in the biz fully endorsed her and even had more work lined up for her. Rust Director applauding her work text you sent me, well, she sent me a text saying he followed up by text telling her that again, what a great job she was doing. I replied by text 'great to hear'.

It's not your fault, none of it is. Individual people & production management definitely screwed up

Disgusting

And she was so surprised that 45 LC dummies all of a sudden ended up on the truck

...and then didn't check them?!

Nope, not that I'm aware of

Don't take the email bait

Should I be scared?

No, just don't say/write anything

But then I look like I was qualified to deal with the guns

It's the CYA starting on their end

*wasnt

Let's talk live tomorrow. Default to doing nothing, saying, writing nothing

Okay

Tue, Oct 26, 9:05 AM

Can you meet at the prop truck today at 5?

Yeah.
Why are they asking us to be there so late?

Why? 😬

Sorry girl, you're never gonna be the same

You've shot forward beyond your years to a place known by few.

You can't go back, sorry

Dude, you're drunk, go to bed 😂

Yah maybe, but it's true. You'll never be the same.

Because of the the tragedy?

Yah, that plus you being a bad ass person.

Sure 😬

I'm sleepingggggggg

Kk, night

Sat, Oct 30, 7:52 AM

Good news for you

I talked to Nicole last night, and she said the the box of 45 LC dummies had a sticker that said "dummies" and a stamp that said "45 LC". No tape and sharpie. So they definitely we're from you, therefore Hannah brought it

'..weren't from' lol

Ty, and good morning 🌞 🍳

Stupid autocorrect 🙄

Good morning!

How are you doing?

Yeah, I'm sure he's not getting much sleep.
I'm doing okay, just waiting for the bombshell that Hannah is gonna drop next week.

Lol, her bombshell of additional non-responsibility and finger pointing?

Cold rain snowy

Sounds great, but miserable. Are you in Livingston?

And yeah, I'm okay! Just a long day with my lawyer

It's nice change of weather and scenery. Cool little town of Hamilton, 1 hour south of Missoula. I'm headed to Livingston this weekend to 1883.

Oh that's right, you know this area. There are a bunch of cool second hand shops. Although at the moment I'm playing the slots getting 'free' drinks at the pizza pub place.

It's gonna be ok, I've seen the evidence. She's screwed and so is the AD. We're just along for the awful ride. Keep in mind you're not gonna be named in any civil suits but I will be. Seth will be kissing away $100k 😂 Imao, that's why I charge more than Billy Rey.

I've actually never had pizza in Montana, is it good? 🍕

You saw the evidence? 😬
I'm really sorry that you got dragged into it 😞

Pizza is always good when it's cold out!

Yah, the investigators needed help figuring out a few things. I'm an open book and not worried about anything coming back to me criminally. So I met with Alex again and we went over what they have for a couple hours.

You're in the clear, just tell them what happened because it will help focus their efforts in the appropriate direction.

It's gonna be ok for me and you, don't sweat it.

So there was a separate box of the 45 LC dummies from the ones you supplied?

Oh yah

This box had been around, and around

And you were able to confirm that the box had live rounds?!

I can't say anything, your memory of things needs to come from you.

...I'll buy you pizza though.

'Rust' Camera Assistant on Safety Issues, Pay Irregularities and Producer Behavior on "Brutal" Set hollywoodreporter.com

Oh that one was really hard to read, poor guy...poor you all. Ugh

I definitely cried when I read it. I didn't think I was inexperienced or doing a bad job. I thought I did enough work to earn a position on a tier 1 show. And no one said they felt unsafe with Hannah. It makes me feel like because I'm a young woman, it automatically makes me not qualified.

You're awesome but part of the 'inexperienced' part comes into play when you haven't yet, and might need to tell an AD, Producer or whoever else 'get stuffed' because of X.

Had you seen the AD handling weapons before the day?

I'll let them know

Fri, Aug 13, 5:26 PM

They want an itemized bot/kit rental, tell me 300$ worth of stuff I could say I brought hahaha

Yah I saw that. When do you need to turn it in?

Please make sure you've got everything you need to ship tomorrow including McCalisters shotgun. I'll send you the shipping info.

Tough love starts with these guys next week, Purchase Orders and/or checks.

The sooner the better.
Yessir got all the guns and working on getting them packaged now.
For sure boss.

Cool, your dad and I are gonna save you from endless amounts of future bullshit.

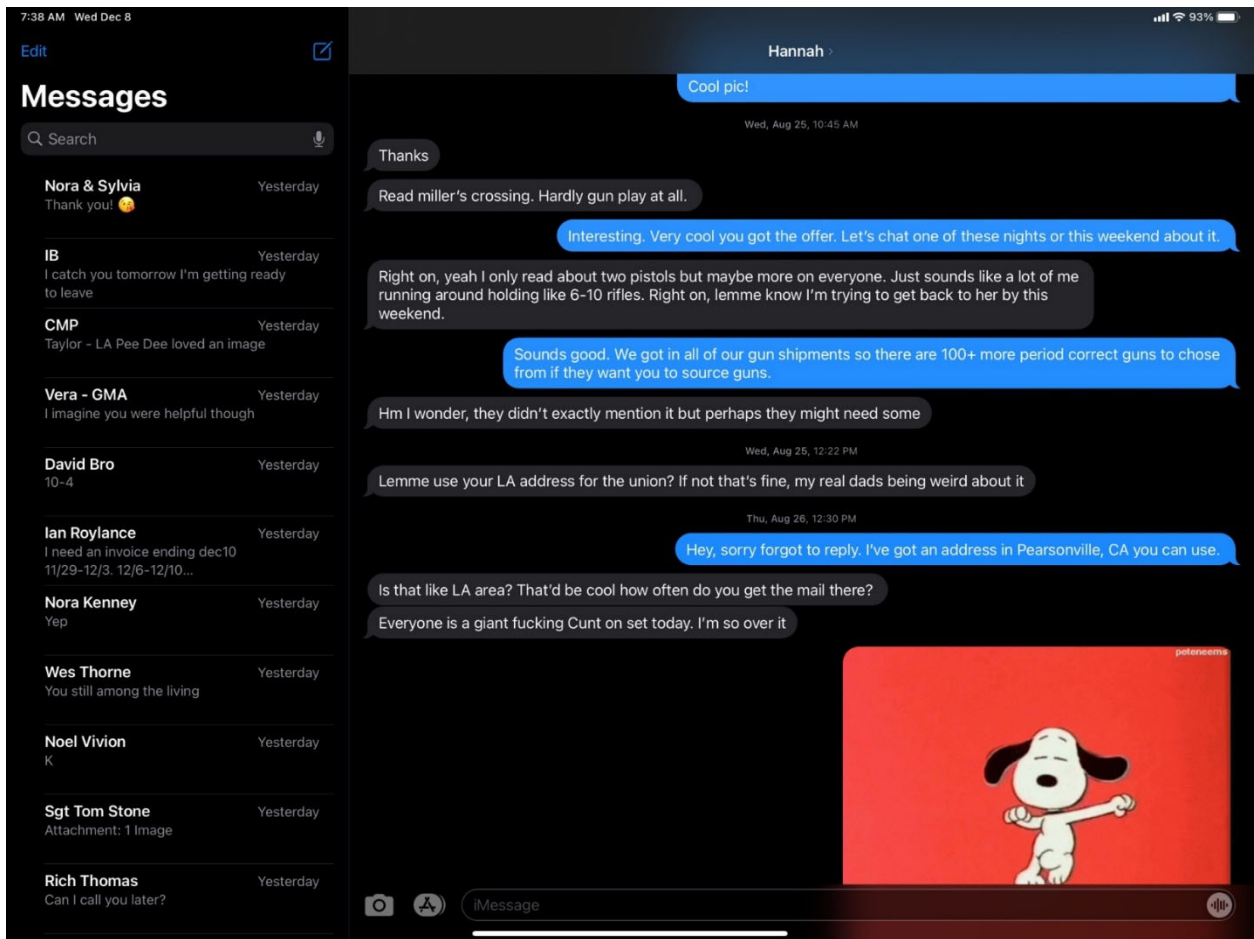

Sometime tonight would be cool

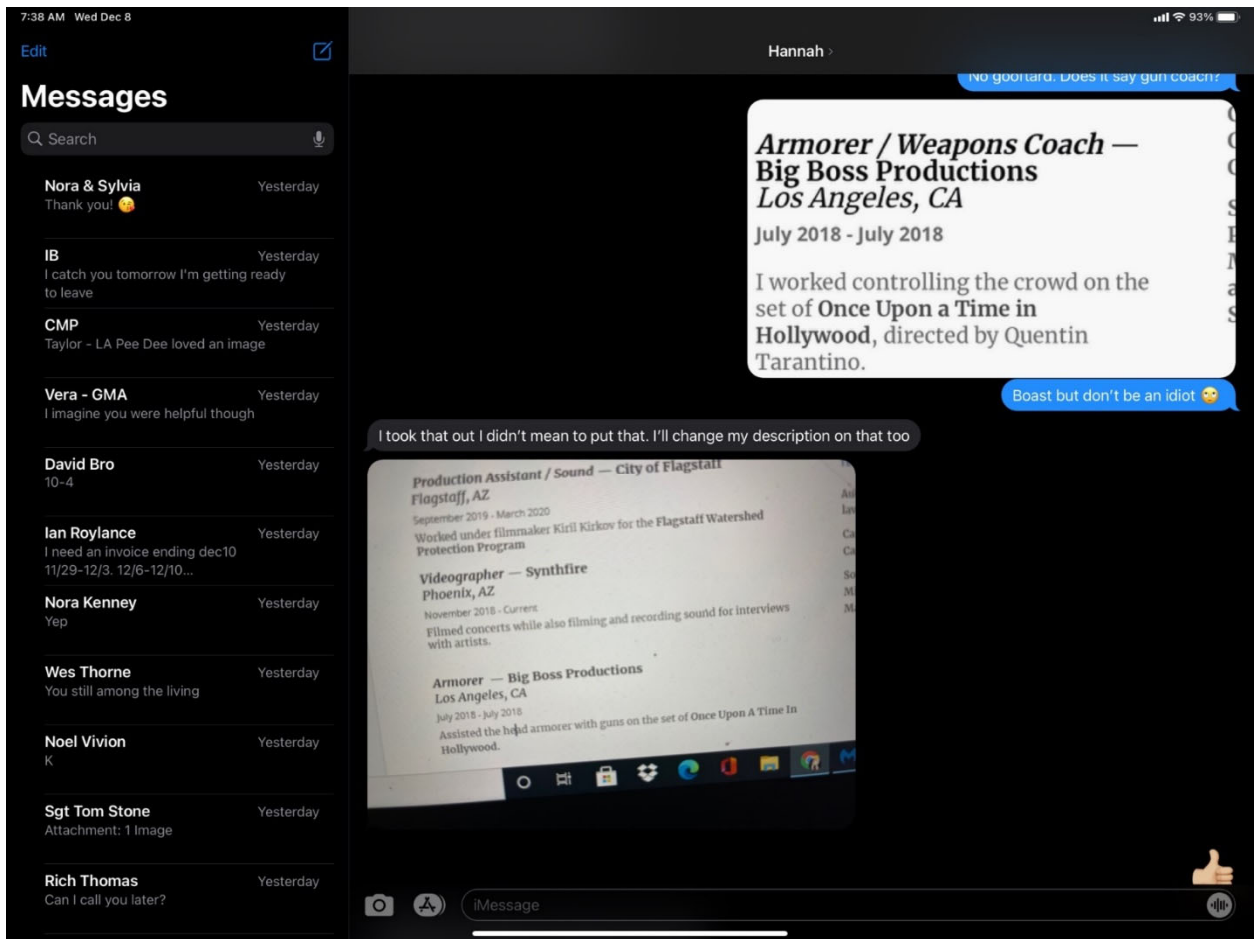

Yah get in line for 'something' tonight.

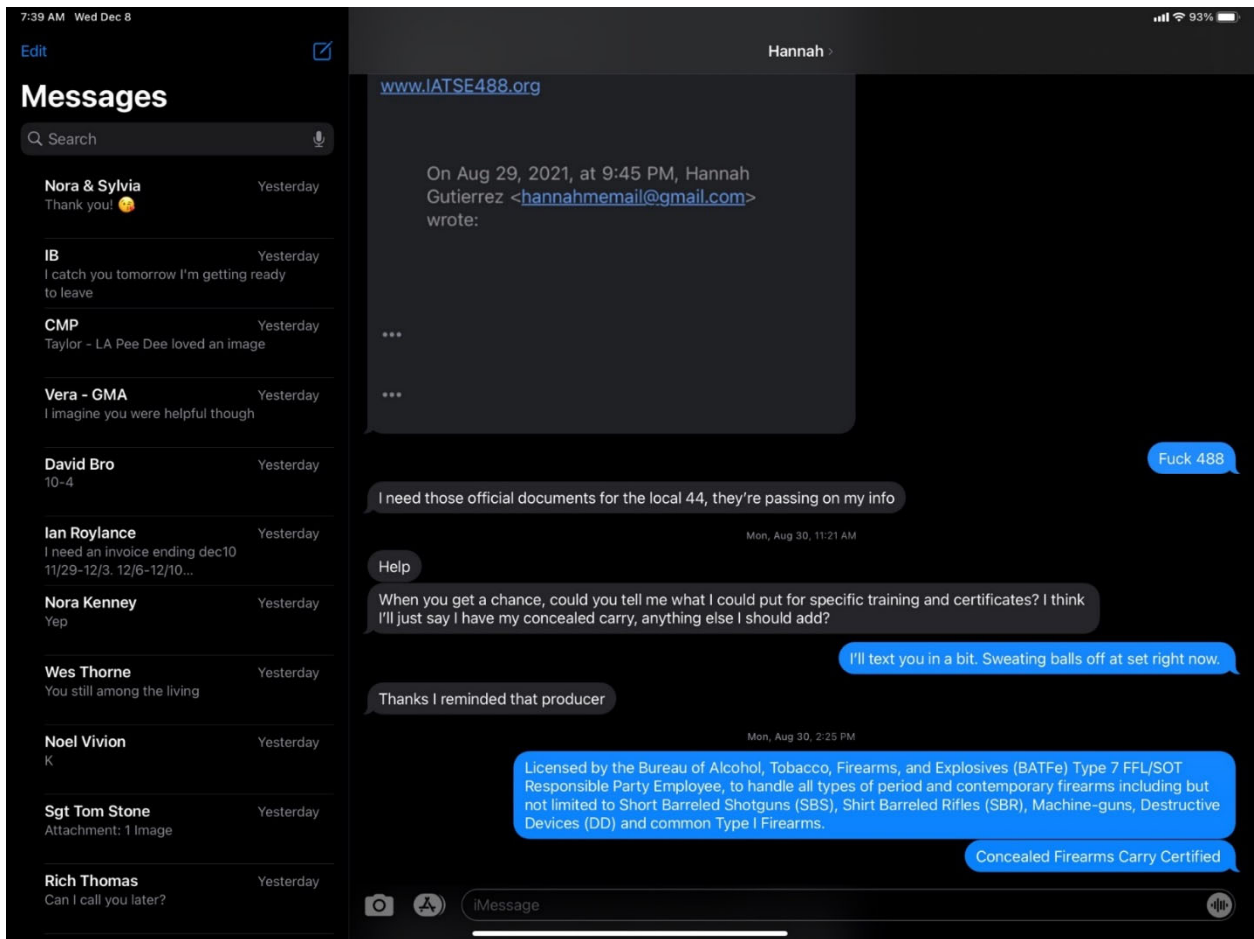

If they don't pay their bills timely you're dad and I are gonna pay you to walk and put you on other shows that will pay straight away. No one respects a boot licker.

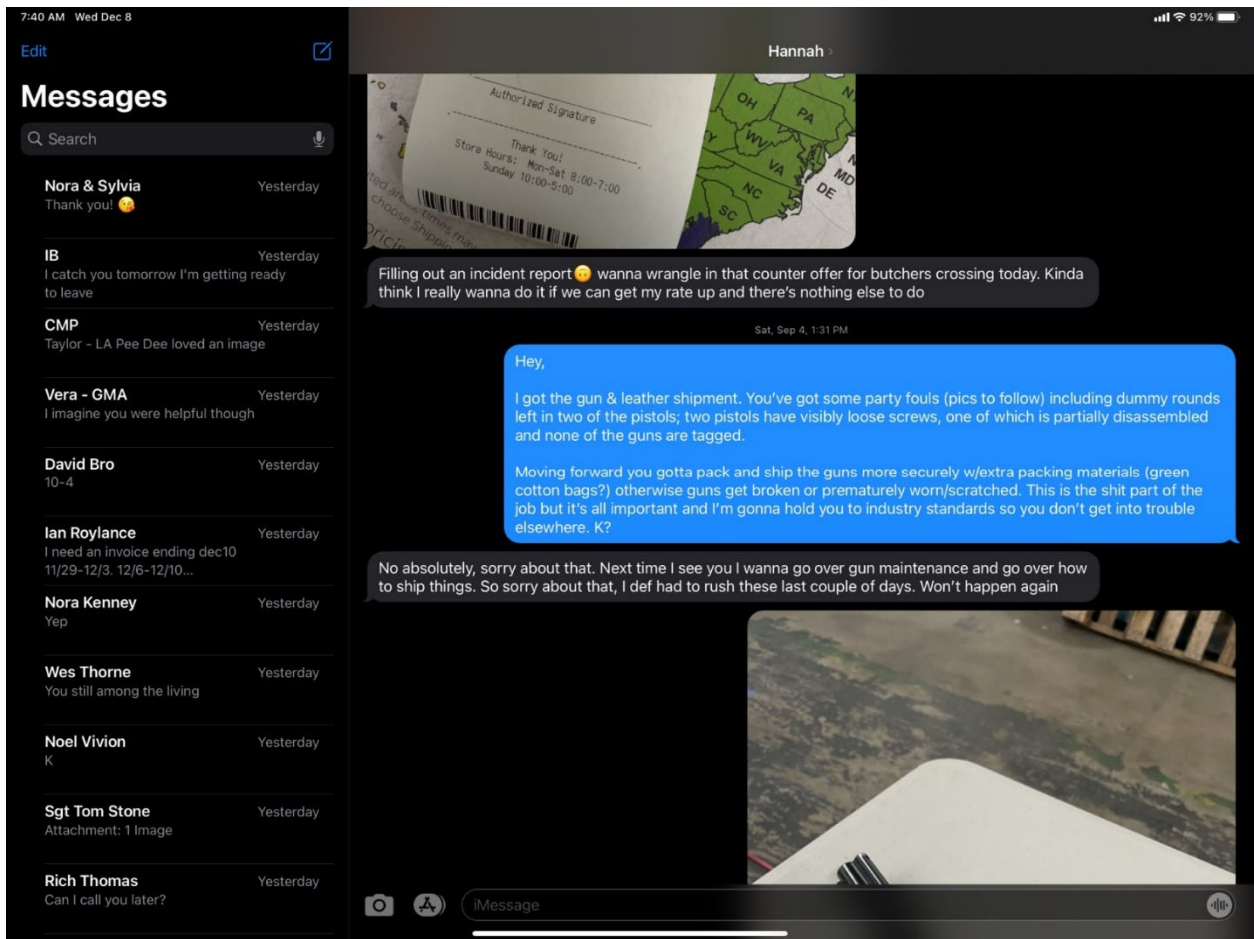

Someone's extra fiesty today 🙌

Right on, am I good to go to Phoenix till Sunday? They said it's on their radar. I asked them to please get it done by Friday

Also how long might I be out there? I got a bag for a week rn.

Get into place Sunday, start Monday, wrap 11/3

The chick who's likely to be the prop master is calling me in a few hours. Should be able to get shit figured out then.

I ❤️ "The check is in the mail" Fucking lying ass dirtbags.

Fri, Sep 24, 1:14 PM

You're hired.

Assistant PM/Armorer

Drive out Sunday so you're ready to go Monday. Sending you the script.

Yay:) am I working under you???

Sarah is the PM, she's about your age but Christian proper type and engaged, ABQ local.

Read it and make a list of all the props, guns and leather.

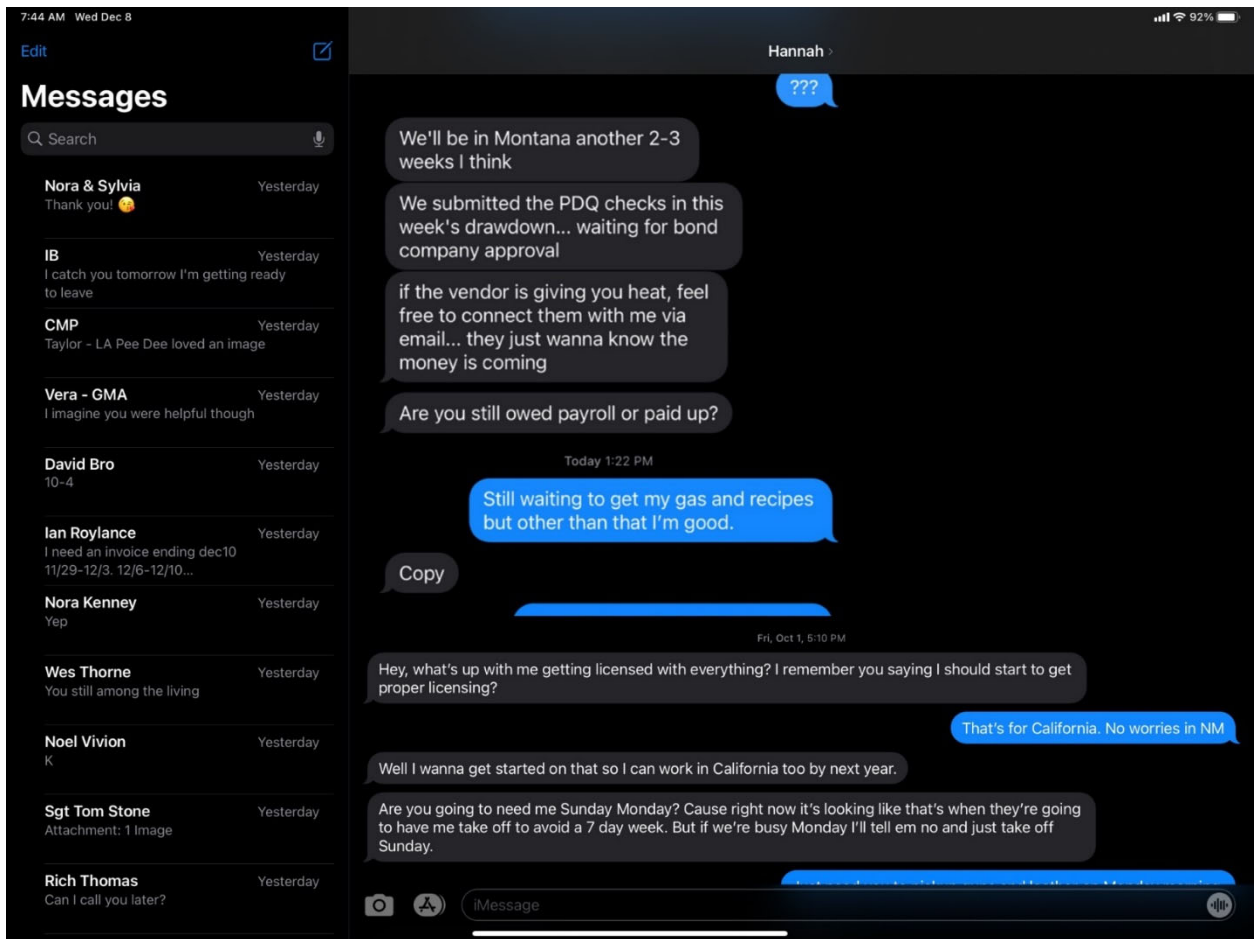

Oookayyy. I've never done the whole prop side but I'll try

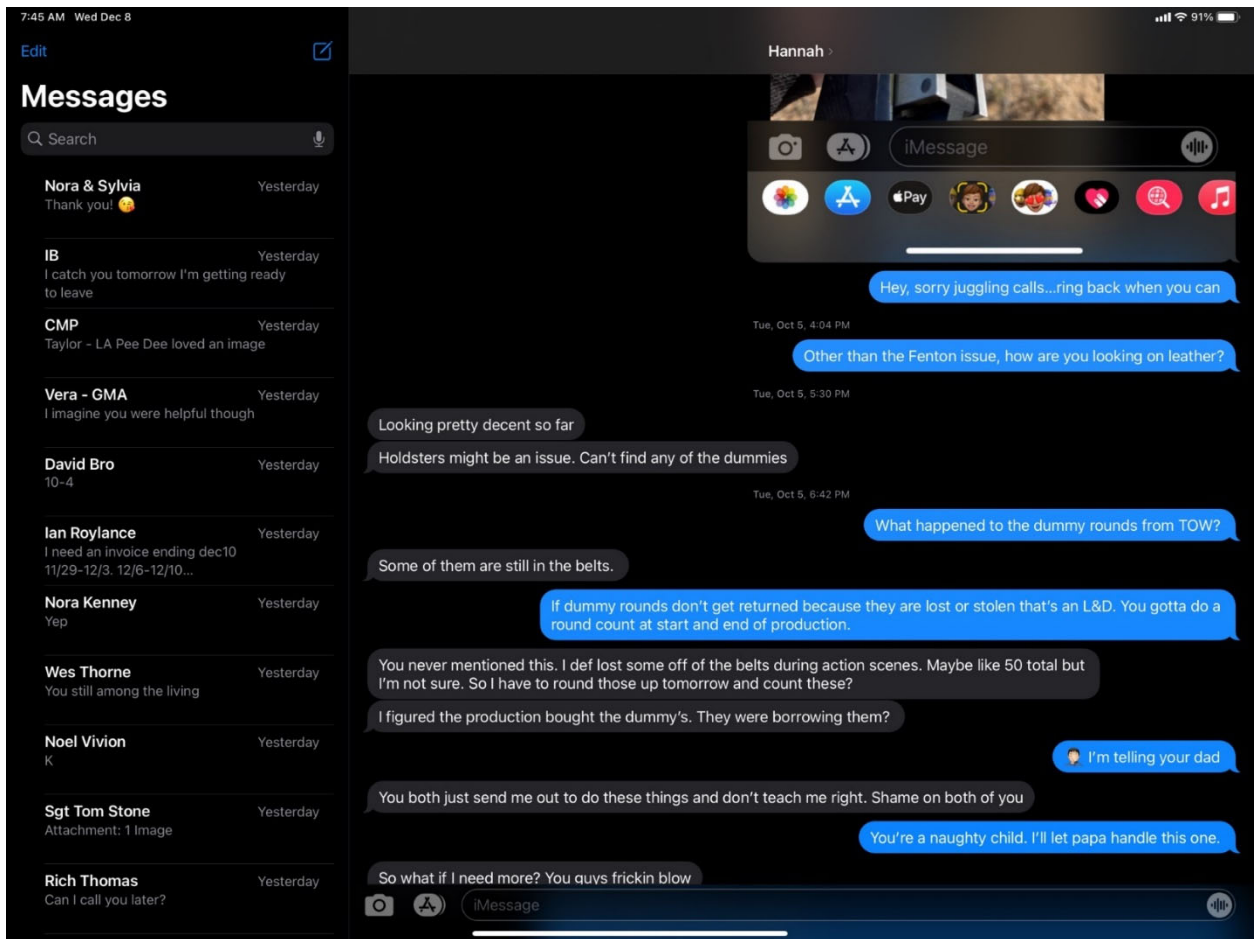

Call you back

Hannah

You're young, certainly not green or inexperienced with period weapons but did you get rolled over by the set system and the AD w/30+ years of experience? I think you did, and you're too proud to say that.

Had you been partnered up with a truly professional AD none of this would've happened. That true professional would've supported your safe efforts, instead you got David 'reckless' Halls. No AD is ever to touch a gun. How many times had he grabbed guns from you? If he did it once before and you didn't kick his teeth in you got rolled. Had you ever watched your dad hand off guns to an AD?

You're tough but there's always someone out there that's more intimidating. Who are you to question him?

Please think about this, take some time.

...be the bigger person than that tool AD.

Thanks for writing me. I am cooperating with police.

Well I had been waiting for an apology to your F bomb texts before all this went down.

Your dad loves you to the point of spoiling you. I on the other hand will tell it to you straight because my care for you isn't in the clouds. He can't imagine you in jail at all for this, while I think 'screw jail time, save her life from drugs and alcohol!

If I'm crying like a bitch how must it be for you?
