NEW MEXICO COURTS AT STATE FAIR

SANTA FE, NM – "Love is in the Fair" and so is the Judiciary. New Mexico Courts has a booth in the Manuel Lujan "C" building at the New Mexico State Fair running through Sunday, September 15, 2019.

"The Judiciary is excited to be at the New Mexico State Fair for the first time and we intend to take advantage of our unique opportunity for public outreach," Supreme Court Chief Justice Judith Nakamura said. "I encourage fairgoers to visit the New Mexico Courts booth and learn outside the courtroom setting about the Judicial Branch of state government and the programs available for all New Mexicans."

Employees and judges representing courts throughout the state, and staff of the Administrative Office of the Courts will be on hand to answer questions and to provide information about the Judiciary's many innovative programs, including Online Dispute Resolution, a new way to settle debt and money due cases for free.

The Mission of the New Mexico Judiciary is to protect the rights and liberties of the people of New Mexico guaranteed by the Constitution and law of the state of New Mexico and the United States; to resolve legal disputes fairly; and to ensure access to justice for all.
