After your forms are filled out, you must take them to the Self-Help office for review. After your forms have been reviewed, you may take them to the clerk's office for filing. The filing fee will be collected at that time.

The filing fee is $137.00, payable in cash, cashier's check, money order, or credit/debit card. Credit/debit card payments for Rio Arriba cases can only be accepted at the Rio Arriba district courthouse.

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may complete and submit an Application For Free Process; if approved, your filing fee may be reduced or waived. This form is available at the clerk's office and on the First District Court's website.

4A-401. Uncontested petition for paternity; forms needed; filing fee.

- A. Forms that need to be filed. In a parentage case where both parties agree, the parties need to file the following completed forms with the court:
- (1) a Domestic Relations Cover Sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA is required;
 - (2) a Petition to Establish Parentage, Form 4A-402 NMRA is provided;
 - (3) an Order Establishing Parentage, Custody, and Child Support, Form 4A-404 NMRA is provided; and
 - (4) a Custody Plan and Order, Form 4A-302 NMRA is provided.
- B. The Order Establishing Parentage, Custody, and Child Support (Form 4A-404 NMRA) requires the parties to fill out a child support worksheet and attach it to the Order. Parties may choose to have child support withheld from the paying parent's income, but that requires filling out a Wage Withholding Order (Form 4A-304 NMRA), having a Child Support Enforcement number (which may be obtained through Child Support Enforcement), and filling out the Income Withholding for Support Form (OMB 0970-0154).
- C. Type or print. The parties must type or print all of the information required to be completed on the forms. Many forms may be downloaded and completed or completed on-line. If a pre-printed form is being used by the parties and there is not enough room on the form to provide all of the information required, use a separate page for the information and staple the page to the pre-printed form before making copies and filing the form with the court.
- D. Sign the pleadings. A party's signature on a pleading or paper filed with the court constitutes a certificate that the party has read the paper and that to the best of the party's knowledge, information, and belief there is good grounds to support it.
- E. Forms required to be signed before a notary. Only the Petition for Parentage must be signed by the petitioner (person filing the case) in front of a notary.
- F. File the forms with the court. After the parties have completed and signed the forms, the parties must file them with the court clerk.
- G. Required number of copies. An original and two (2) copies of each form must be filed.
- H. Pay the filing fee. A filing fee must be paid to the clerk in cash, money order, or credit card at the time the petition and information sheet are filed unless free process is approved.

[Approved, effective November 15, 2002; 4A-206 recompiled as 4A-401 by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-014, effective immediately in all cases pending or filed on or after June 24, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. S-1-RCR-2024-00103, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2024.]

D. Request to limit access to information.

(Optional - complete only if applicable)

- The [petitioner] [respondent] has reason to fear domestic violence or child abuse. For this reason, please limit access to information about the [petitioner] [respondent] in the Child Support & Paternity Case Registry to the extent possible.⁴ The [petitioner] [respondent] realizes that this request may make it more difficult to assist in collecting child support. The [petitioner] [respondent] understands that the other party and the public might still view information about this case under some circumstances.

I affirm that this request is legitimately made and not designed to harass or intimidate the other party or mislead the court.

END OF INFORMATION SHEET

USE NOTE

1. The Domestic Relations Information Sheet is not required in domestic violence, commitment, guardianship, probate, or adoption actions; or if you are filing a pleading that does not change or add to the first pleading.

In uncontested domestic relations matters, the parties may submit one Information Sheet with the initial pleading, and the documents need not be served.

In all other contested domestic relations cases each attorney representing a petitioner, or the petitioner proceeding pro se, in a contested case must submit the Information Sheet and serve a blank copy of the Information Sheet on the respondent. Respondents must submit the completed Information Sheet with their first responsive pleading.

The information submitted on these forms does not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers required by law. These forms, approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico, are required to initiate domestic relations cases and are used by the courts for case management.

Forms are available from the court clerks and the NMRA. Electronic copies may be obtained from the Supreme Court's internet site (www.supremecourt.nm.org) and New Mexico Law on Disc. If re-keying the form it must appear substantially in the same format as the Supreme Court approved form. Type or print only. If using a word processing system, please print your answers in bold.

2. Unless there are more than four children, the Information Sheet is to be submitted on a single page. The clerk will key-enter the information on the Information Sheet. The Information Sheet will not be filed in the court file.

3. If the party has more than one social security number, please include it. Pursuant to Sections 27-1-10 and 27-1-11 NMSA 1978 and federal law, each party must submit the social security number of each party as well as the name, date of birth and social security number for each minor child. This information will be provided to the State Case Registry and, upon request, to child support enforcement agencies. The parties' addresses and social security numbers are also used to accurately identify and track court users, obtain feedback from court users on a periodic basis and to issue process in contempt proceedings. Addresses provided on this page will not be made a part of the public record unless that party is or becomes self represented.

4. The Child Support & Paternity Case Registry is a required, nationwide database of child support and paternity orders. Access to registry information is strictly limited to court and child support administrative personnel. Requesting that your registry information be "nondisclosed" does not prevent authorized parties from reviewing the information. Rather, it alerts courts and child support administrative personnel to act with caution when viewing your information. However, be aware that requesting "nondisclosure" of registry information does not limit access to your official district court case file which is a public record. If you are concerned about such access, ask your lawyer, or the court clerk if you do not have a lawyer, about ways in which the court may restrict access to your court file.

[Provisionally approved as 4-211 NMRA, effective November 1, 1999 until November 1, 2000; approved, as amended, effective November 1, 2000; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300011, effective for all cases filed on or after December 31, 2014.]

USE NOTE

1. A child support obligation must be filed in every dissolution of marriage case if the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school. For more information about filling out this form, see Form 4A-300 NMRA.
2. If child support is not paid in a timely manner, interest will be added to the amount owed at the rate provided by law. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-7.3 for accrual of interest on delinquent child support.
3. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-11.1 for the child support worksheet. An interactive version of this worksheet may be found at www.nmcourts.com, click on "Family Law Forms." See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the child support worksheet. The child support worksheet is used to determine the monthly child support obligation.
4. If child support is being paid for more than one child, the end of a child support obligation for a child may be a change of circumstances that justifies a different child support amount. A new child support worksheet must be completed and adopted by the court. If your child has an intellectual or physical disability, you should consult with an attorney.
5. The judge may or may not accept a proposed change from the worksheet amount. Proposed changes may be appropriate if application of the child support guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate, or create a substantial hardship. If child support has been ordered in another proceeding, tell the court about it here and attach that child support worksheet.
6. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4C-4 for medical support orders. In some circumstances the court may order both parties to provide employer-provided health insurance.
7. See Form 4A-304 NMRA for the Wage Withholding Order. Wage withholding is required unless the parties show good cause and make alternate payment arrangements. Wage withholding is mandatory if the children are receiving public assistance. Payments made by wage withholding go through the Title IV-D agency (CSED) and cannot be directly sent by the employer to a party. Either party may request the court to enter a Wage Withholding Order. See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the Wage Withholding Order.
8. You need a court order to adjust child support payments.
9. Consult with a professional about tax issues that relate to any children.
