

Third Judicial District Court
Dona Ana County, NM

Service by Publication

AFTER FILING YOUR PETITION, YOU MUST GIVE THE OTHER PARTY (CALLED THE “RESPONDENT”) LEGAL NOTICE OF YOUR LAWSUIT BY ARRANGING TO HAVE THE SUMMONS AND PETITION DELIVERED INTO THEIR HANDS. THIS IS CALLED “SERVING” THE RESPONDENT.

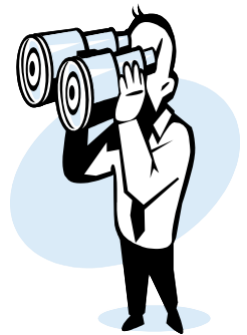

IF YOU CANNOT FIND THE RESPONDENT FOR SERVING, YOU MAY ASK THE COURT’S PERMISSION TO SERVE HIM/HER BY PUBLISHING A SPECIAL “NOTICE” IN THE LEGAL ADS SECTION OF THE NEWSPAPER. THIS IS CALLED SERVICE BY PUBLICATION.

FIRST YOU MUST LOOK FOR THE RESPONDENT

You must try really hard to find the Respondent. This is called diligent efforts. And, you should keep a record of what you do (keep copies of letters, emails, or returned mail, for example).

WHY do you have to look for the Respondent?

First, the judge can’t give you permission to publish in the newspaper unless your Motion (form #1) shows that you made diligent efforts find the Respondent. Second, if you serve by publication and later the Respondent can prove you could have found him/her, then he/she can argue, months or even years later, that the Order or Decree you got from the court isn’t valid!

LIST OF FORMS

- #1 Motion & Affidavit for Service by Publication
- #2 Order for Service of Process by Publication in a Newspaper
- #3 Notice of Suit
- #4 Submission of Affidavit of Publication

CAUTION

DO NOT USE THIS PACKET:

- * If the respondent lives in another country!
- * In quiet title actions!
- * In actions where unknown heirs are parties!

That takes a lawyer’s help.

Take it one step at a time:

- Fill-out all 4 forms in this packet.
- Give the court clerk the original and one copy of the: Motion (#1), Order (#2), and Notice (#3). IMPORTANT!!! If the Respondent cannot be found in Dona Ana County, give the court clerk 2 copies of the Notice (#3). That’s because you MUST publish in Dona Ana County AND in the county where the Respondent is most likely to be found. If that is the case, you need one Notice per newspaper.
- Give the court clerk a letter-sized envelope with first-class postage (address the envelope to you).
- If the judge approves your request, the court clerk puts a raised seal (called “issuing”) on the Notice. The Order and the Notice with the raised seal are mailed to you in the envelope you gave the court clerk. IMPORTANT!! DON’T publish until you receive the Notice with the raised seal!!
- Arrange with the newspaper to publish the issued Notice. You must pay for the cost to publish. The court cannot waive the newspaper’s fee.
- After the Notice is published, the newspaper sends an affidavit to you that proves your Notice was put in the newspaper. Attach the newspaper’s affidavit to the last form in this packet—the Submission of Affidavit of Publication (#4) and file it with the court. This is your official proof that you served the Respondent by publishing in the newspaper.
