DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

INSTRUCTIONS TO GET A RESTRAINING ORDER
SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
(SOCORRO, SIERRA, TORRANCE AND CATRON COUNTIES)

A “restraining order”/injunction is an order that stops somebody from doing something before it happens.

There are very strict requirements to get a restraining order/injunction:

1. The harm you are claiming is very serious and likely to continue if the Court doesn’t get involved AND
2. There is no other way to remedy the problem such as seeking money damages at another time AND
3. If you are wrong, you are prepared to pay the other side the amount of their damages including their costs and attorney’s fees.

If you meet the 3 requirements above, you may apply for a restraining order/injunction:

Step 1: Fill in the Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction and sign the application before a Notary Public. Please understand the Court Clerks are NOT allowed to give you legal advice or tell you what to say in your application. Make at least two (2) copies.

Step 2: File the Application with the Clerk of the Court and pay the filing fee of $132.00. If you are indigent you may also submit an application for free process. The application for free process may take several days and may not be granted. The Clerk accepts cash, cashier’s check, money order or attorney’s check.

Step 3: The Clerk will automatically assign a Judge to your case. The Clerk will take your application and proposed order to the Judge’s office. You must wait for the Judge to review the application and sign the order. The Clerk can tell you whether to wait at the Courthouse or to call in later to check on whether the order is ready.

Step 4: As soon as the order is ready, the Clerk will file it, and you must pick up your endorsed copies at the Clerk’s office.

Step 5: Serve the other person the endorsed Application for Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, the endorsed Temporary Restraining Order and Summons.

Anyone who is over 18 years of age and who is not a party to the case may serve the papers. That means the Plaintiff CANNOT serve the papers. The Sheriff’s Offices or a professional process server can serve the papers but they usually charge a fee. If the Court has granted the Plaintiff Free Process, the Sheriff will serve the papers for free (within New Mexico).

Step 6: Get proof of service. The person who performed the service fills out the Return of Service and you must file the Return of Service with the Clerk of Court. It is your responsibility to follow up with law enforcement regarding the service of your documents before your hearing. The Judge must have a copy of the Return of Service at the time of the hearing.

Step 7: Attend the hearing at the date and time set and bring evidence such as witnesses or documents and be prepared to prove your claim in court.
