WHAT DOES EXPUNGEMENT MEAN?

- The general public is prevented from seeing your New Mexico state criminal records.¹
- Courts, law enforcement and other criminal justice agencies will tell the public that “no such record exists.”
- Employment: The criminal record will not show up on a “background check” for employment UNLESS you are applying to work for a bank or financial institution.
- The criminal record is not destroyed.
- The criminal record remains available for use in any future criminal proceedings.
- The criminal record remains available and will be disclosed to financial regulatory authorities if you apply to work for a bank.
- Criminal records held by tribal and federal authorities, even if located in New Mexico, cannot be expunged under New Mexico’s Criminal Record Expungement Act.

Criminal Record Expungement Act
NMSA 1978 §29-3A-1 to 29-3A-7
History: Laws 2019, ch. 203
Effective January 1, 2020

29-3A-1. Short title.

This act [29-3A-1 to 29-3A-7 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Criminal Record Expungement Act".

29-3A-2. Definitions.

As used in the Criminal Record Expungement Act:

A. "arrest records" means records of identification of a person under arrest or under investigation for a crime taken or gathered by an official; "arrest records" includes information gathered from the national crime information center or another criminal record database, photographs, fingerprints and booking sheets; except "arrest records" does not include:

- (1) driving while intoxicated citations maintained by the taxation and revenue department;
- (2) computer-aided dispatch information; or
- (3) log books relating to breath alcohol testing equipment;

B. "expungement" means the removal from access to the general public of a notation of an arrest, complaint, indictment, information, plea of guilty, conviction, acquittal, dismissal or discharge record, including a record posted on a publicly accessible court, corrections or law enforcement internet website; and

C. "public records" means documentation relating to a person's arrest, indictment, proceeding, finding or plea of guilty, conviction, acquittal, dismissal or discharge, including information posted on a court or law enforcement website; but "public records" does not include:

- (1) arrest record information that:
 - (a) reveals confidential sources, methods, information or individuals accused but not charged with a crime and that is maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions pertaining to any person charged with the commission of any crime; or
 - (b) is confidential and unlawful to disseminate or reveal, except as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act [Chapter 29, Article 10 NMSA 1978] or other law;
- (2) the file of a district attorney or attorney general maintained as a confidential record for law enforcement purposes and not open for inspection by members of the public;
- (3) a record maintained by the children, youth and families department, the human services department or the public education department when that record is confidential under state or federal law and is required to be maintained by state or federal law for audit or other purposes; or
- (4) a record received pursuant to a background check as authorized by law.

29-3A-3. Expungement of records upon identity theft.

A. A person who is wrongfully identified in arrest records or public records as a result of identity theft may petition the district court for an order to expunge arrest records and public records.

B. After a hearing on the petition and upon a showing that the person is a victim of identity theft, the court shall issue an order within thirty days of the hearing requiring that all arrest records and public records be expunged.

(3) the petitioner has fulfilled any victim restitution ordered by the court in connection with the petitioner's conviction; and

(4) no other criminal conviction of the petitioner has occurred for a period of:

(a) two years if the petition relates to a conviction for a violation of a municipal ordinance or a misdemeanor not otherwise provided in this paragraph;

(b) four years if the petition relates to a misdemeanor conviction for aggravated battery as provided in Subsection B of Section 30-3-5 NMSA 1978 or to a conviction for a fourth degree felony not otherwise provided in this paragraph;

(c) six years if the petition relates to a conviction for a third degree felony not otherwise provided in this paragraph;

(d) eight years if the petition relates to a conviction for a second degree felony not otherwise provided in this paragraph; or

(e) ten years if the petition relates to a conviction for a first degree felony or for any offense provided in the Crimes Against Household Members Act [30-3-10 to 30-3-18 NMSA 1978].

D. The court shall cause a copy of the order to be delivered to all relevant law enforcement agencies and courts. The order shall prohibit all relevant law enforcement agencies and courts from releasing copies of such records to any person, except upon order of the court.

E. To determine whether justice will be served by an order to expunge, the court shall consider:

(1) the nature and gravity of the offense or conduct that resulted in the petitioner's conviction;

(2) the petitioner's age, criminal history and employment history;

(3) the length of time that has passed since the offense was committed and the related sentence was completed;

(4) the specific adverse consequences the petitioner may be subject to if the petition is denied; and

(5) any reasons to deny expungement of the records submitted by the district attorney.

F. For the purposes of determining the time lapsed since a criminal conviction as required in Subsection C of this section, time shall be measured from the last date on which a person completed a sentence for a conviction in any jurisdiction.

G The provisions of Subsection A of this section do not apply to an offense committed against a child, an offense that caused great bodily harm or death to another person, a sex offense as defined in Section 29-11A-3 NMSA 1978, embezzlement pursuant to Section 30-16-8 NMSA 1978 or an offense involving driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs.

29-3A-6. Notices; rulemaking.

The administrative office of the courts and the department of public safety shall develop rules and procedures to implement the Criminal Record Expungement Act, including procedures for notifying the accused of the accused's rights under that act.

29-3A-7. Effect of an order to expunge.

Upon entry an of order to expunge, the proceedings shall be treated as if they never occurred, and officials and the person who received the order to expunge may reply to an inquiry that no record exists with respect to the person; provided that arrest or conviction records shall be disclosed by the person and officials in connection with any application for or query regarding qualification for employment or association with any financial institution regulated by the financial industry regulatory authority or the securities and exchange commission.
