INFORMATION AND RULES FOR SELF-REPRESENTED (PRO SE) LITIGANTS

- Although we want to be responsive to your needs, the court staff cannot give you any legal advice.
- You should attend the Court’s Self-Represented Litigants Legal Advice Clinic. At each clinic, volunteer attorneys are available to give legal advice and can help you complete your forms. The clinics are free and are held once a month. Visit our website at eleventhdistrictcourt.nmcourts.gov for the date, time and location of the next clinic or ask court staff for a list of clinics.
- Your first choice should be to consult with an attorney. There is good reason for anyone seeking legal remedies to do so, but especially those who have been married a long time; have children; have significant property (land or retirement plans) and/or significant debts.
- If you are unable to afford an attorney, there are several sources available where you may get help. Please ask the clerk for a Pro Se resource list. If there is domestic violence in your relationship, you may qualify for assistance at DNA Legal Services.
- Remember that when you are appearing pro se, you are held to the same standards as attorneys and are expected to know the rules of evidence and courtroom procedure. The judges and hearing officer cannot help you present your case.
- You must provide a complete mailing address in your court case file and you must update it whenever there are changes. If you do not do so, your case may be decided without your input.
- Be timely for Court hearings. If you do not appear on time, your case may be decided without you or a bench warrant may be issued for your arrest.
- There are two District Court locations: 851 Andrea Drive, Farmington and 103 South Oliver, Aztec. Be sure to check the notice carefully for the time and location of the hearing. Allow yourself adequate travel time to appear for your hearing on time.
- Hearings are often scheduled on a “trailing docket” which means that many cases are scheduled for a hearing at the same time. If this happens in your case, please be sure to arrange to be in Court for several hours or the entire day while the judge or hearing officer deals with each case one at a time.

- Children are not allowed in the courtroom without the judge’s permission. There are no childcare facilities at the Court. Please make other arrangement for your children for the time you will be at Court.
- You are expected to come to your Court hearings in person. Appearing by telephone is only acceptable if you ask the Court’s permission in writing ahead of time (there is a form for this) and only if the Court approves your request. (Appearing at a Court hearing by telephone is called a “telephonic appearance.”)
- Be courteous. Other than to make appropriate objections, do not interrupt anyone who is speaking during the hearing. If you are representing yourself and you have an objection to something a witness says, merely stand and say “Objection,” and the Court will allow you to state the nature of your objection.
- Do not make faces or gestures at the opposing party, his or her attorney, witnesses or the judge while in the courtroom. Speak directly to the judge, not the opposing party or a witness. You will be given an opportunity to be heard if you wait your turn.
- Treat all Court personnel with respect, including bailiffs, judicial assistants, clerks, judges and hearing officers.
- Show your respect for the Court by wearing clean, neat clothing. Wearing hats, sunglasses, shorts or pajamas in the courtroom is not allowed.
- Do not bring any food or beverage into the courtroom and do not chew gum or eat candy in the courtroom.
- Cell phones are allowed in the courtroom but only if they are turned off. If your phone rings while you are in the courtroom, the judge has the authority to fine you or to take your phone.
- Bring at least four (4) copies of any documents that you want to offer into evidence.

THANK YOU.

Karen L. Townsend, Chief District Judge
Daylene A. Marsh, District Judge
Bradford J. Dalley, District Judge
Sarah V. Weaver, District Judge

A. Short title. These forms, compiled as Forms 4A-100 through 4A-403 NMRA, shall be known as the Domestic Relations Forms and shall be cited by their New Mexico Rules Annotated set and form number, as in “Form 4A- NMRA.”

B. Mandatory acceptance of forms by district court. The New Mexico Supreme Court has approved these Domestic Relations Forms for use in domestic relations actions by self-represented litigants and attorneys appearing in the district courts. As provided by Rule 1-120 NMRA, these forms supersede conflicting local district court domestic relations forms and shall be accepted by the district courts.

C. Responsibility of self-represented parties. A self-represented person shall abide by the same rules of procedure and rules of evidence as lawyers. It is the responsibility of a self-represented person to determine what needs to be done and to take the necessary action. A self-represented person involved in a divorce proceeding may need the advice of an attorney or other appropriate professional during the process and is responsible for finding an attorney or other appropriate professional for advice or representation.

(1) All notices from the court will be mailed to you at the last address on file with the court. If you move, you must file a Notice of change of Address so that you receive your mail from the court.

(2) Rule 1-005 NMRA requires that you provide a copy of anything you file in the court to the other party on the same day you file it. This is what the Certificate of Service confirms.

D. Definitions. The following definitions apply to the terms used in the Domestic Relations Forms:

(1) “contested divorce proceeding” means a divorce proceeding in which the parties cannot reach an agreement on one or more decisions that must be made to finalize a divorce, including but not limited to the division of property, debts, spousal support, child custody, time sharing, visitation, or child support, and therefore are unable to file all of the required forms at the same time;

(2) “creditor” means a person, agency, bank, or business to whom a debt is owed;

(3) “custody plan” means Form 4A-302 NMRA, which sets forth the type of legal custody and includes a parenting plan, when required by law;

(4) “debt” means separate or community debt as defined in Section 40-3-9 NMSA 1978. Debt is an amount of money owed to a creditor that may include, but is not limited to: loans (signature, car, school, payday), mortgages, credit card balances, balances owed on bills (utilities, phone, cell phone, cable television), and federal and state tax bills. The party whose name is on the debt may not be the only party responsible for payment of the debt;

(5) “default” means the process to get relief from the court in the form of an order when a party fails to respond or defend a case (either party is subject to a default judgment for failure to respond). See Rule 1-055 NMRA for more information;

(6) “dissolution of marriage” means a divorce;

(7) “divorce proceeding” means the judicial process used to get a divorce;

(8) “minor child” means a child who is under eighteen (18) years of age and who is the child of both parties to a divorce. For the purposes of support only, a child who is under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school full time may be considered a minor child;

(9) “parenting plan” means a plan as defined by Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978, setting forth the responsibilities of each parent individually and the parents jointly in a joint custody arrangement. For an example of a parenting plan, see Form 4A-302(II)(B) NMRA;

(10) “party” means a spouse named in a divorce proceeding;

(11) “petition for dissolution of marriage” means the document that requests a divorce;

This person is referred to as a “petitioner” solely for purposes of identifying the parties in the court system;

(13) “property” means the types of property the parties to a divorce may own, including community, separate, or quasi-community as defined in Section 40-3-8 NMSA 1978. Property includes, but is not limited to: homes, land, livestock, cars/vehicles, furniture, savings and checking accounts, retirement accounts, jewelry, inheritances, tools, and art. The name of the party on the title to the property may not be the sole owner of the property. Questions about whether property is separate or community should be referred to a private attorney or the court, as appropriate;

(14) “respondent” means the second party named on a petition in a domestic relations proceeding;

(15) “service” or “service of process” means having a person eighteen (18) years or older, who is not a party to the action, give papers to a named party in a case by personally handing the paperwork to the person, or having the papers delivered to a named party in a case by some other way as described in Rule 1-004 NMRA;

(16) “summons” means a notice to the respondent that a lawsuit has started. The summons notifies the respondent to respond to the divorce petition within the specified deadline.

The summons is a two-part form. On the first part, the summons has information about the court, names and addresses of the parties, the deadline for a response, and notice that a default may happen for failure to respond. The second part of the summons is the return. The summons is served on the respondent. Once the respondent is served, the return must be filled out by the person who did the service of process and signed by that person with a notarized signature. When the original summons, including the return, is completely filled out and signed, the petitioner is responsible for filing it with the district court. The summons form is Form 4-206 NMRA. Filing the completed summons and return lets the court know that the respondent has been served;

(17) “summons packet” means a copy of the summons (Form 4-206 NMRA), petition for dissolution of marriage (Form 4A-102 or 4A-103 NMRA), temporary domestic order (Form 4A-201 NMRA), and a blank copy of the Domestic Relations Information Sheet (Form 4A-101 NMRA). See Paragraph E below for more information. The summons packet is served on the respondent;

(18) “temporary domestic order” means an order issued by the court when a divorce proceeding is filed that instructs the parties on how to conduct themselves regarding interactions with each other, finances, children, and property until the divorce is final. The temporary domestic order is Form 4A-201 NMRA;

(19) “time sharing and order for support and care of children” means one or more orders of the court to include a parenting plan as defined in Paragraph L of Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978 containing the duties of the parents of minor children relating to child custody, time sharing, visitation, and support, including support of a child under nineteen (19) years of age who is attending high school;

(20) “uncontested divorce proceeding” means a divorce proceeding in which the parties are in complete agreement as to all the decisions that must be made to finalize a divorce, including but not limited to decisions regarding the division of property, debts, spousal support, child custody, timesharing, visitation, and child support, and present the following required forms, completed and signed by both parties, for filing at the same time;

(a) Without children. If the parties do not have minor children, the following forms must be filed in an uncontested divorce proceeding;

(i) Domestic relations information sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA;

(ii) Petition for dissolution of marriage (without minor children), Form 4A-102 NMRA;

(iii) Marital settlement agreement, Form 4A-301 NMRA; and

(iv) Final decree of dissolution of marriage (without minor children), Form 4A-305 NMRA.

(b) With children. If the parties have minor children, the following forms must be filed in an uncontested divorce proceeding;

(i) Domestic relations information sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA

- NMRA;
- (ii) Petition for dissolution of marriage (with minor children), Form 4A-103
 - (iii) Marital settlement agreement, Form 4A-301 NMRA;
 - (iv) Custody plan and order, Form 4A-302 NMRA;
 - (v) Child support obligation and order, Form 4A-303 NMRA, with attached child support worksheet as described in Section 40-4-11.1 NMSA 1978; and
 - (vi) Final decree of dissolution of marriage (with minor children), Form 4A-306 NMRA.

(21) “wage withholding order” means an order that requires child support to be withheld from the wages of the named parent.

E. STARTING THE DIVORCE PROCESS; CONTESTED. These are the first forms that must be filed with the court. When starting this process, each spouse must be named as a party on the forms. One spouse is the petitioner and the other is the respondent. The spouse starting the lawsuit is the named petitioner. The other spouse is the respondent. The claims or rights of either party are not determined on the basis of being named as the petitioner or respondent. See Paragraph F of this rule for instructions on completing forms and next steps after these forms are filled out. In a divorce proceeding, the case is started by filing the following completed forms with the court:

(1) Domestic Relations Information Sheet. Form 4A-101 NMRA shall be submitted to the court in all cases. This form is used to provide the court with essential information about the parties to the divorce proceeding, such as addresses, social security numbers, dates of birth, and the names and ages of the children of the parties. Although this form is required to be turned into the court, it is not a public record and is not part of the court file; and

(2) Divorce Petition (Petition for Dissolution of Marriage). Depending on whether there are minor children of both parties, one of the following two forms are used to request a divorce:

(a) Form 4A-102 NMRA is used if the parties do not have any minor children together; or

(b) Form 4A-103 NMRA is used if the parties have minor children together.

(3) Summons. The Summons Form is Form 4-206 NMRA. The petitioner must complete this form. When the petitioner completes the contact information, the court will fill in additional information to complete the summons and return the original summons to the petitioner. A copy of the summons shall be served on the respondent as part of the Summons Packet. See Paragraph J of this rule for serving the Summons Packet. It is the responsibility of the petitioner to file the original summons with a completed return with the court.

(4) Temporary Domestic Order (TDO). The TDO is Form 4A-201 NMRA. Each judicial district has different procedures about who provides the standard form and how a TDO is issued. Some courts provide the form when the lawsuit is filed and others require the party starting the lawsuit to complete the form. Check with the court where you are filing your lawsuit to find out if you need to bring a TDO form with you. The contents of the TDO form shall not be changed by any person. The form requires only the completion of the court caption on the first page. If the court where you are filing your lawsuit does not issue its own TDO, bring additional copies of the TDO with you when filing your lawsuit.

F. Completion of forms. When filling out any forms, please do the following:

(1) Type or print. You must type or print all of the information required to be completed on forms filed with the court. If there is not enough room on the form to provide all of the information required, add a separate page for the information and include the page with the rest of the form before making copies and filing the form with the court. Your handwriting should be clear and easy to read.

(2) Signing the forms and other papers. Your signature on a form or other paper filed with the court means the following:

- (a) you have read and understand the form or paperwork;
- (b) the information provided by you on the form is factually correct to the best of your knowledge; and

(c) the information in the paperwork is accurate and true.

Some forms may need to be signed in front of a notary public and notarized.

G. Required number of copies to file with the court. After completing and signing any required forms, take the original and two copies of each form to the court clerk for filing. The clerk will file the originals and return stamped copies to you. One copy is for you, and you must provide the other copy to the other party.

H. Pay the filing fee. A filing fee must be paid to the court clerk in cash or money order at the time the divorce case is opened. A divorce case is opened by filing a domestic relations information sheet, divorce petition, and summons. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you may ask the court to allow you to file for free or a reduced rate by filing an application for free process. The application for free process is Form 4-222 NMRA.

I. Filing the first forms with the court. After completing the Summons Packet, take the original and two (2) copies of each completed form to file in the district court. The court clerk will sign and stamp the original summons and give the original and two (2) copies of it back to you with a copy of your filed divorce petition so that a copy of the summons can be served on the respondent. The clerk may also give you two (2) copies of the TDO or will endorse (stamp) copies of a TDO provided by you. One copy of the temporary domestic order must be served on the respondent as part of the summons packet.

J. Serving the summons packet.

(1) After a divorce petition and summons and TDO are filed with the court, copies of all papers must be served on the respondent. This is known as service of process.

(2) The Summons Packet and any other documents the clerk instructs you to serve may be served on the respondent by hand-delivery by a person who is over the age of eighteen (18) and is not a party to the divorce proceeding. The petitioner cannot be the person who serves the respondent. Have someone deliver the Summons Packet to the respondent as required by Rule 1-004(F) NMRA. It is the sole responsibility of the petitioner to have the summons packet served on the respondent and to provide proof that the service was completed. The court is not responsible for serving documents on any party.

(a) If you and respondent are not living together and you know the respondent's current mailing address, the summons packet may also be served by certified mail, return receipt requested. If served by certified mail, the respondent must sign a receipt indicating that he or she received the Summons Packet for service to be completed. The return receipt from the certified mailing must be filed with the district court.

(b) There are other ways of serving the Summons Packet on the respondent. Read Rule 1-004 NMRA to learn more about those methods.

(c) Service of process may be done by a private process server, law enforcement, or any other person who is over eighteen (18) and not a party to the lawsuit. You may have to pay a fee to someone to do the service of process for you. Check with your local law enforcement or look in the phone book for resources for service of process.

(3) If you cannot find the respondent after reasonable attempts to find him or her to serve the Summons Packet, you may file a motion with the court asking permission to serve the summons packet by publication in a newspaper. If you need to serve the summons packet by publication in a newspaper, use Forms 4-209 and 4-209A NMRA.

(4) After successful service on the respondent, the petitioner is responsible for making sure that the original summons with the completed return is filed with the court to prove that the respondent was served.

K. Responding to the petition. In a contested divorce proceeding, the respondent must file a written response to the divorce petition. Form 4A-104 NMRA may be used to respond to the divorce petition. The response must be filed with the court and a copy mailed to the petitioner within thirty (30) days after the summons packet was served on the respondent. Failure to file a response to the divorce petition within the thirty (30) days can result in serious consequences, including the entry of a default judgment against the respondent.

L. Issues not addressed by the forms. The Domestic Relations Forms may not address all domestic relations issues relevant to you. The forms address only the most common divorce issues. If there are issues that are not addressed in the forms, you are responsible for bringing those issues to the attention of the court or you should seek the assistance of an attorney. You may need to get other forms that are not provided in these rules to finish the transfer of property, businesses, etc. For example, the forms do not include the following:

- (1) federal and state tax treatment of income, expenses, and deductions both before and after a divorce, or as a result of a child support order, for claiming children as dependents, or for paying or receiving alimony;
- (2) how to transfer title to property or assets;
- (3) how to divide a business or retirement income;
- (4) how to divide or transfer other complicated assets; or
- (5) how to divide or transfer debts.

M. Keeping Records. Any party to an action should make copies of all documents, paperwork, or forms filed with the court for his or her own records.

N. Paying Creditors. These forms, including the final decree of dissolution of marriage, do not change the legal responsibility of the parties to pay their creditors.

O. Role of judge, clerk, and court. Court clerks can only help you with filing forms with the court; they cannot help you complete them. The judge makes decisions in your case, but neither the judge nor the judge's staff can give advice to either party, including how to fill out the forms. If you need assistance or have questions about how to complete the forms, you may seek help from an attorney. The court clerks may give you information about resources for legal assistance. See Rule 23-113 NMRA, which provides more guidance on what information and assistance court staff may give to self-represented litigants. You may also want to use your local library to get information about the forms or legal citations in these rules, which may include internet searches of New Mexico court websites (www.nmcourts.gov) and the New Mexico compilation commission (www.nmcc.gov).

D. Request to limit access to information. (Optional - complete only if applicable)

The [petitioner] [respondent] has reason to fear domestic violence or child abuse. For this reason, please limit access to information about the [petitioner] [respondent] in the Child Support & Paternity Case Registry to the extent possible.⁴ The [petitioner] [respondent] realizes that this request may make it more difficult to assist in collecting child support. The [petitioner] [respondent] understands that the other party and the public might still view information about this case under some circumstances.

I affirm that this request is legitimately made and not designed to harass or intimidate the other party or mislead the court.

Signature of [Petitioner] [Respondent]

USE NOTES

1. The Domestic Relations Information Sheet is not required in domestic violence, commitment, guardianship, probate, or adoption actions; or if you are filing a pleading that does not change or add to the first pleading.

In uncontested domestic relations matters, the parties may submit one Information Sheet with the initial pleading, and the document need not be served.

In all other contested domestic relations cases each attorney representing a petitioner, or the petitioner proceeding pro se, in a contested case must submit the Information Sheet and serve a blank copy of the Information Sheet on the respondent. Respondents must submit the completed Information Sheet with their first responsive pleading.

The information submitted on these forms does not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers required by law. These forms, approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico, are required to initiate domestic relations cases and are used by the courts for case management.

Forms are available from the court clerks and the NMRA. Electronic copies may be obtained from the Supreme Court's internet site (www.supremecourt.nm.org) and New Mexico Law on Disc. If re-keying the form it must appear substantially in the same format as the Supreme Court approved form. Type or print only. If using a word processing system, please print your answers in bold.

2. Unless there are more than four children, the Information Sheet is to be submitted on a single page. The clerk will key-enter the information on the Information Sheet. The Information Sheet will not be filed in the court file.

3. If the party has more than one social security number, please include it. Pursuant to Sections 27-1-10 and 27-1-11 NMSA 1978 and federal law, each party must submit the social security number of each party as well as the name, date of birth and social security number for each minor child. This information will be provided to the State Case Registry and, upon request, to child support enforcement agencies. The parties' addresses and social security numbers are also used to accurately identify and track court users, obtain feedback from court users on a periodic basis and to issue process in contempt proceedings. Addresses provided on this page will not be made a part of the public record unless that party is or becomes self-represented.

4. The Child Support & Paternity Case Registry is a required, nationwide database of child support and paternity orders. Access to registry information is strictly limited to court and child support administrative personnel. Requesting that your registry information be "nondisclosed" does not prevent authorized parties from reviewing the information. Rather, it alerts courts and child support administrative personnel to act with caution when viewing your information. However, be aware that requesting "nondisclosure" of registry information does not limit access to your official district court case file which is a public record. If you are concerned about such access, ask your lawyer, or the court clerk if you do not have a lawyer, about ways in which the court may restrict access to your court file.

[Provisionally approved as 4-211 NMRA, effective November 1, 1999 until November 1, 2000; approved, as amended, effective November 1, 2000; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all cases filed on or after December 31, 2014.]

A. Stage three (3) forms; scope. The stage three (3) forms are the last forms that you must complete to dissolve your marriage (i.e., get a “divorce”). Once approved by the Court, the agreements and promises that you have made in these forms will settle financial matters between you and the other party, and will control your rights as a parent. When both parties sign the Marital Settlement Agreement (Form 4A-301 NMRA), the Custody Plan and Order (Form 4A-302 NMRA), and the Child Support Obligation and Order (Form 4A-303 NMRA), they may be enforced by either party as contracts. When the Court signs a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 or 4A-306 NMRA), you will be divorced, and the Marital Settlement Agreement, the Custody Plan and Order, and the Child Support Obligation and Order will become legally binding on both of you. Any important changes to these agreements should be in writing and signed by both parties. These changes should be filed with the Court. You should be careful when filling out these forms, and be as complete as possible. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney.

B. Marital Settlement Agreement. A Marital Settlement Agreement (“MSA”) must be completed, signed by both parties, and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case. (Use Form 4A-301 NMRA.) Although the MSA is called an “Agreement,” if the parties do not agree on its terms, the Court may use the terms of either party’s proposed MSA in its final order after a hearing. The MSA describes how you and the other party will divide your property and debts, and how you will settle any other financial matters, including whether one party will pay spousal support or make a cash payment to the other. When the parties sign the MSA or the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the MSA is legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on some or all of the terms of the MSA, you may request the assistance of a mediator, if available, by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation (child support or other financial issues) (Form 4A-205 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Subparagraph (1) of Paragraph E of Form 4A-200 NMRA.

The MSA includes the following sections:

(1) Property we are dividing. This is where you describe how you will divide your property, including personal property, real property, bank and investment accounts, retirement plans, vehicles, and any other property. Examples of each type of property are included on the form. Complete the Personal Property List (Attachment A) to identify any personal property you own that is valuable to you and to show how you will divide it. If you have real property other than the home you lived in while you were married, complete the Real Property List (Attachment B) to identify the property and to show how you will divide it;

(2) Debts we are dividing. This is where you describe how you will divide your debts (e.g., credit cards, loans, etc.), cancel joint credit cards, file your taxes, and handle any issues that may come up with tax returns that were filed while you were married. Complete the Debt List (Attachment C) to identify each of your debts and to show how you will divide them;

(3) Cash payment. This is where you show any dollar amount that you have agreed one party should pay the other to settle the division of your property and debts. This amount will be included in the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage as a judgment in favor of the party who is to receive the cash payment. This judgment may be enforced as provided by law;

(4) Spousal support. This is where you show any dollar amount that you have agreed one party should pay the other as monthly spousal support. If the Court approves this section, the amount and timing of spousal support can be modified only by a court order. For more information on spousal support, see Section 40-4-7 NMSA 1978;

(5) Other statements by parties. This is where you promise to do what is necessary to carry out your agreements in the MSA and how you will resolve any arguments you may have about the MSA in the future; and

(6) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the MSA and sign it under penalty of perjury.

C. Custody plan and order. A Custody Plan and Order must be completed and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case when the parties are the parents of one or more children under eighteen (18) years of age or under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school. (Use Form 4A-302 NMRA.) This document describes decisions that have been made and how decisions will be made in the future about the children. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the Custody Plan and Order is legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on the terms of a Custody Plan and Order, you may request the assistance of a mediator by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation (child custody, timesharing, or visitation) (Form 4A-204 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe that a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA. Some courts will not set a hearing on custody matters until the parties have tried mediation but failed to reach an agreement. Check with the Court before you request a hearing to find out if mediation is required.

The Custody Plan and Order includes the following sections:

(1) Identification and contact information. This is where you list the names and contact information of the parties and the children who are covered by the form;

(2) Custody of the children. This is where you describe the agreement you have reached about how you will make decisions and who will have custody of your children. If you choose sole legal custody, you must provide the specific reason why sole legal custody is in the best interests of the children. Also describe how often, when, and where the non-custodial parent will be allowed to visit the children, if at all. If you choose joint legal custody, you must complete the parenting plan in Subparagraphs one (1) through five (5) of Paragraph B to describe how you will share the custody of your children; and

(3) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the Custody Plan and Order and sign it under penalty of perjury.

D. Child support obligation and order. A Child Support Obligation and Order must be completed and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case when the parties are the parents of one or more children under eighteen (18) years of age or under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school. (Use Form 4A-303 NMRA.) This document describes how you will divide the expenses of raising the children, including child support and health insurance, and tax issues relating to the children. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the Child Support Obligation and Order will become legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on the terms of the Child Support Obligation and Order, you may request the assistance of a mediator by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation

(child support or other financial issues) (Form 4A-205 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe that a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA.

The Child Support Obligation and Order includes the following sections:

(1) Identification and contact information. This is where you list the names and contact information of the parties and the children who are covered by the form;

(2) Child support. This is where you describe how you will share the expenses of raising your children. This portion of the form refers to these additional documents:

(a) Child support worksheet. To complete Paragraph A of this section, you must complete and attach a child support worksheet to your Child Support Obligation and Order. The worksheet will help you figure out the amount of child support required by law. The worksheet is available at Section 40-4-11.1 NMSA 1978, or you can find an interactive version at www.nmcourts.com by clicking on the “Family Law Forms” link and selecting “Child Support Worksheet.” The interactive worksheet will automatically calculate the monthly child support obligation. The amount shown on the child support worksheet will be awarded by the Court. If the parties need to deviate from the amount shown on the child support worksheet, they must request a different amount, explain why that amount is necessary, and the deviation must be approved by the Court; and

(b) Wage withholding order. Under Paragraph D of this section, you must tell the Court how you will begin wage withholding for child support. Payment of child support by wage withholding is mandatory unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court. Wage withholding will not take effect until the parties complete a Wage Withholding Order (Form 4A-304 NMRA) and submit it to the Court for filing, or until the Court signs and files the Child Support Obligation and Order and the parties open a case with the New Mexico Human Services Department, Child Support Enforcement Division (“CSED”). CSED can issue a notice of wage withholding for the parties on full service cases. You may request the Court to order wage withholding by attaching a completed Wage Withholding Order to the Child Support Obligation and Order; and

(3) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the Child Support Obligation and Order and sign it under penalty of perjury.

E. Final decree of dissolution of marriage. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, you and the other party will be divorced. You may request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage as follows:

(1) Uncontested. If you and the other party agree on the terms of your MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children), you may request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage by doing the following:

(a) Filing your completed MSA (and completed Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) with the Court Clerk’s Office; and

(b) Submitting a completed Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 NMRA (without children) or 4A-306 (with children) NMRA) to the judge for approval.

The Court may sign the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage without further notice, or it may order you and the other party to appear for a hearing. WARNING: Once the Court signs and files the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, your divorce will be final, and the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) will be binding as a court order on both parties. See Paragraph A, above;

(2) Contested. If you and the other party do not agree on the terms of your MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) and you cannot submit completed forms to the Court, you should request a trial in your case by submitting a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA). For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA.

The Court will set one or more hearings to resolve the remaining disagreements over the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children). You must complete your own proposed MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 (without children) or Form 4A-306 (with children) NMRA) and bring them with you to the hearing. Once the Court has decided the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children), it will sign and file a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, and you will be divorced from the other party; or

(3) Default. If more than thirty (30) days have passed since you filed and served the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and the other party has not filed an answer or otherwise responded to your petition, you may be able to request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage without the other party's participation. This is called a default judgment. See Form 4A-310 NMRA for instructions on how to request a default judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage.

USE NOTES

1. A marital settlement agreement must be filed in every dissolution of marriage cause. See Forms 4A-100, -200, and -300 NMRA for additional information about completing and filing this form.
2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.
3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.
5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary. If the parties cannot agree on the terms of the QDRO, they should request a hearing.
6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension, deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see any attorney regarding these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are certain documents the plan administrator must have. An attorney can help you prepare these documents.
7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
8. This agreement may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter who agrees to pay the debt in this agreement. See an attorney if you have questions about separate and community debts and separate and community property.
9. There can be serious consequences resulting from spousal support awards. If your agreement includes spousal support, you should consult with an attorney.
10. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.
11. To divide property or debts left out of this agreement, see Section 40-4-20(A) NMSA 1978.

1. A custody plan must be filed in every dissolution of marriage case if the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school. For more information about filling out this form, see Form 4A-300 NMRA.

2. The parties should understand the difference between the rights and obligations of joint custodians and a sole custodian. Descriptions of these terms are set out in NMSA 1978 Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978. See an attorney with questions you may have. Joint custody does not imply an equal division of the child's time between the parents or an equal division of financial responsibility for the child.

USE NOTE

1. A child support obligation must be filed in every dissolution of marriage case if the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school. For more information about filling out this form, see Form 4A-300 NMRA.

2. If child support is not paid in a timely manner, interest will be added to the amount owed at the rate provided by law. See NMSA 1978 Section 40-4-7.3 for accrual of interest on delinquent child support.

3. See NMSA 1978 Section 40-4-11.1 for the child support worksheet. An interactive version of this worksheet may be found at www.nmcourts.com, click on "Family Law Forms." See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the child support worksheet. The child support worksheet is used to determine the monthly child support obligation.

4. If child support is being paid for more than one child, the end of a child support obligation for a child may be a change of circumstances that justifies a different child support amount. A new child support worksheet must be completed and adopted by the court. If your child has an intellectual or physical disability, you should consult with an attorney.

5. The judge may or may not accept a proposed change from the worksheet amount. Proposed changes may be appropriate if application of the child support guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate, or create a substantial hardship. If child support has been ordered in another proceeding, tell the court about it here and attach that child support worksheet.

6. See NMSA 1978 Section 40-4C-4 for medical support orders. In some circumstances the court may order both parties to provide employer-provided health insurance.

7. See Form 4A-304 NMRA for the Wage Withholding Order. Wage withholding is required unless the parties show good cause and make alternate payment arrangements. Wage withholding is mandatory if the children are receiving public assistance. Payments made by wage withholding go through the Title IV-D agency (CSED) and cannot be directly sent by the employer to a party. Either party may request the court to enter a Wage Withholding Order. See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the Wage Withholding Order.

8. You need a court order to adjust child support payments.

9. Consult with a professional about tax issues that relate to any children.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR EMPLOYERS/INCOME WITHHOLDERS

State-specific contact and withholding information can be found on the Federal Employer Services website located at: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cse/newhire/employer/contacts/contact_map.htm

Priority: Withholding for support has priority over any other legal process under State law against the same income (USC 42 §666(b)(7)). If a Federal tax levy is in effect, please notify the sender.

Combining Payments: When remitting payments to an SDU or Tribal CSE agency, you may combine withheld amounts from more than one employee/obligor's income in a single payment. You must, however, separately identify each employee/obligor's portion of the payment.

Payments To SDU: You must send child support payments payable by income withholding to the appropriate SDU or to a Tribal CSE agency. If this IWO instructs you to send a payment to an entity other than an SDU (e.g., payable to the custodial party, court, or attorney), you must check the box above and return this notice to the sender. Exception: If this IWO was sent by a Court, Attorney, or Private Individual/Entity and the initial order was entered before January 1, 1994 or the order was issued by a Tribal CSE agency, you must follow the "Remit payment to" instructions on this form.

Reporting the Pay Date: You must report the pay date when sending the payment. The pay date is the date on which the amount was withheld from the employee/obligor's wages. You must comply with the law of the State (or Tribal law if applicable) of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment regarding time periods within which you must implement the withholding and forward the support payments.

Multiple IWOs: If there is more than one IWO against this employee/obligor and you are unable to fully honor all IWOs due to Federal, State, or Tribal withholding limits, you must honor all IWOs to the greatest extent possible, giving priority to current support before payment of any past-due support. Follow the State or Tribal law/procedure of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment to determine the appropriate allocation method.

Lump Sum Payments: You may be required to notify a State or Tribal CSE agency of upcoming lump sum payments to this employee/obligor such as bonuses, commissions, or severance pay. Contact the sender to determine if you are required to report and/or withhold lump sum payments.

Liability: If you have any doubts about the validity of this IWO, contact the sender. If you fail to withhold income from the employee/obligor's income as the IWO directs, you are liable for both the accumulated amount you should have withheld and any penalties set by State or Tribal law/procedure. _____

Anti-discrimination: You are subject to a fine determined under State or Tribal law for discharging an employee/obligor from employment, refusing to employ, or taking disciplinary action against an employee/obligor because of this IWO. _____

Employer's Name: _____ Employer FEIN: _____
Employee/Obligor's Name: _____
CSE Agency Case Identifier: _____ Order Identifier: _____

Withholding Limits: You may not withhold more than the lesser of: 1) the amounts allowed by the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA) (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)); or 2) the amounts allowed by the State or Tribe of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment (see REMITTANCE INFORMATION). Disposable income is the net income left after making mandatory deductions such as: State, Federal, local taxes; Social Security taxes; statutory pension contributions; and Medicare taxes. The Federal limit is 50% of the disposable income if the obligor is supporting another family and 60% of the disposable income if the obligor is not supporting another family. However, those limits increase 5% - to 55% and 65% - if the arrears are greater than 12 weeks. If permitted by the State or Tribe, you may deduct a fee for administrative costs. The combined support amount and fee may not exceed the limit indicated in this section.

For Tribal orders, you may not withhold more than the amounts allowed under the law of the issuing Tribe. For Tribal employers/income withholders who receive a State IWO, you may not withhold more than the lesser of the limit set by the law of the jurisdiction in which the employer/income withholder is located or the maximum amount permitted under section 303(d) of the CCPA (15 U.S.C. 1673 (b)).

Depending upon applicable State or Tribal law, you may need to also consider the amounts paid for health care premiums in determining disposable income and applying appropriate withholding limits.

Arrears greater than 12 weeks? If the Order Information does not indicate that the arrears are greater than 12 weeks, then the Employer should calculate the CCPA limit using the lower percentage.
