

Tenant's Relief and Response to Landlord's Eviction Process

Metropolitan Court - Civil Division

This pamphlet concerns only residential leases and does not pertain to leases of commercial property, mobile homes and/or government housing. This pamphlet is general in nature and is not designed to give legal advice. The Court does not guarantee the legal sufficiency of this pamphlet or that it meets your specific needs. Also, as the law is constantly changing, the information in this pamphlet may not be current. Therefore, you may wish to seek the advice and assistance of an attorney.

WHAT IS A RESIDENTIAL LEASE?

A residential Lease is an agreement between a person or entity (the “Landlord”), who owns a residence, such as a home or apartment (“Residence”), and who grants to another person (“Tenant”) the right to possess, use and live in the Residence in exchange for the Tenant’s payment of Rent.

WHAT ARE THE LANDLORD’S DUTIES UNDER A RESIDENTIAL LEASE?

A Landlord must follow the Lease and is responsible to provide the Tenant with possession of the Residence until the Lease is terminated or the Tenant is Evicted. Subject to the terms of the Lease, the law requires the Landlord to:

- ❖ Comply with applicable minimum housing codes materially affecting health/ safety;
- ❖ Make repairs so that the Residence and all common areas are kept in a safe condition as required by applicable laws/rules;
- ❖ Maintain in good and safe working order the electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and other facilities and appliances, including elevators, if any, supplied or required to be supplied by the Landlord;
- ❖ Provide and maintain trash receptacles; and
- ❖ Supply running water and a reasonable amount of hot water.

WHAT ACTIONS CAN A TENANT TAKE AGAINST THE LANDLORD?

Until a Lease ends or is terminated, so long as a Tenant is paying Rent and not violating the Lease or the law, the Tenant may possess, use and occupy the Residence. If the Landlord violates the law or a material term of the Lease or if the Residence being rented is dangerous or unhealthy, then the Tenant can give the Landlord a 7-day written notice requesting the Landlord to follow the law, perform its obligations under the Lease, and/or repair/remedy the dangerous or unhealthy conditions at the Residence. If the Landlord fails to perform and/or the repairs are not finished within 7 days (or not begun if such repairs reasonably cannot be completed within 7 days), then the Tenant can:

- Terminate the Lease;
- Reduce (abate) the Rent usually by 1/3 of the pro-rata daily rental amount for each day that the repairs are unfinished (unless the Residence is completely unlivable in which case the Tenant may be able to abate more Rent); or
- File a *Petition by Resident for Relief (for example, to bring a claim for damages against the Landlord or for quiet enjoyment of the Residence) and proceed through the Court process.

For example, if a Tenant is illegally locked out of or denied access to the Residence, or if the utilities are wrongfully disconnected by the Landlord, then the Tenant can file a Petition by Resident for Relief claiming that he/she is entitled to damages due to the Landlord’s wrongful actions and/or that Tenant be allowed to move back into the Residence. (See How to File a Civil Lawsuit pamphlet for information on how to file a Petition with the Court and serve it on the Landlord.) However, the Petition by Resident is not proof; it is only a statement of what the Tenant hopes to prove at Trial. The Tenant must appear at Trial to prove his/her case to the Judge.

WHAT IS EVICTION AND HOW DOES IT BEGIN?

Just as a Tenant can bring a claim against a Landlord, so too can a Landlord bring a claim against a Tenant. Eviction is when the Landlord ends the Tenant's possession of the Residence under the Lease. The Eviction process starts with a written notice from the Landlord to the Tenant regarding the Lease. There are four basic types of Eviction notices:

▶ A 30-day notice, where the Landlord tells the Tenant that the Lease is ending and that the Tenant must move out by a specific date (This type of notice must be given at least 30 days before the Tenant is required to move out.);

▶ A 7-day notice, where the Landlord tells the Tenant that Tenant has violated the Lease or failed to perform obligations imposed on the Tenant by law and which violations or failures the Tenant must correct within 7-days or be Evicted. If the Tenant receives two 7-day notices within a six month period, then the Landlord may be able to terminate the Lease and the Tenant would have to move out within 7 days of the notice being delivered to the Tenant;

▶ A 3-day notice of non-payment of rent, which gives the Tenant 3 days to pay Rent to the Landlord; and

▶ A 3-day notice of substantial violation, which the Landlord gives when the Tenant or another person, with the Tenant's consent, knowingly commits a substantial violation of the Lease or the law and which gives the Tenant 3 days to move out of the Residence. (See NMSA 1978, §47-8-33(I) and Rule 4-901A NMRA regarding “substantial violations.”)

If the Tenant pays the Rent due and corrects the violations in the time set out in the notice, then the Judge may not allow the Landlord to Evict the Tenant. Otherwise, if the Tenant fails to pay Rent, correct the violations, and/or move out by the date set in the notice, then the Landlord will probably go to Court and file a Petition by Owner for Restitution asking the Judge to evict the Tenant and award the Landlord money for past and future rents, late fees, utility charges, property damage, other contractual damages, attorney's fees and/or Court costs.

WHAT IS AN ANSWER TO PETITION BY OWNER FOR RESTITUTION?

If a Tenant is served with a Petition by Owner for Restitution, the Tenant can respond by filing an Answer to the Petition at any time before the Trial/Court date. In the Answer, the Tenant can admit or deny the claims being made by the Landlord and can provide information to the Court such as why the Tenant should not have to move out of the Residence or why the Tenant does not owe the Rent being claimed by the Landlord. The Tenant's Answer also may include any defenses to the Landlord's claims and also any claims (Counterclaim), which the Tenant has against the Landlord. However, the Answer or Counterclaim is not proof; it is only a statement of what the Tenant hopes to prove at Trial. The Tenant must appear at Trial to prove his/her case to the Judge.

WHO WILL BE THE JUDGE?

A Judge is randomly assigned to a case when the case is filed. In an Eviction case, the time limit for excusing a Judge for the Landlord or the Tenant is 3 days after the service of the Petition by Owner for Restitution. In a Petition by Resident for Relief, the deadline to excuse a Judge for the Tenant is 3 days from filing the Petition and for the Landlord is 3 days from service of the Petition. If either the Landlord or the Tenant disqualifies a Judge, the Court will assign a new Judge to the case. However, the Court date and time probably will remain the same with the new Judge.

RECORD OF HEARINGS/TRIAL

See How to File a Lawsuit pamphlet for information on what to do if you would like a Hearing or Trial to be recorded and how to obtain a copy of the CD.

HOW IS NOTICE OF THE COURT DATE GIVEN TO THE LANDLORD?

When the Tenant files a Petition by Resident for Relief, the Clerk of the Court will prepare a Service Packet, which includes the Petition and a Summons, the Trial date and time and the assigned Judge. It is the responsibility of the Tenant to make arrangements to have the Landlord properly served with the Service Packet. (See How to File a Lawsuit pamphlet on how the Landlord as a defendant must be notified of the lawsuit being brought by Tenant.) It is very important that the Landlord is properly notified that a lawsuit has been filed by the Tenant.

CAN THE COURT DATE BE CHANGED?

A party may try to change a Court date by making a request in writing before the scheduled date. The Judge will decide whether to change the Court date.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE TENANT DOES NOT APPEAR AT THE TRIAL?

If the Tenant does not appear at a Trial on the Tenant's Petition by Resident for Relief, then the Judge may dismiss the Tenant's case. If the Tenant fails to respond to and/or does not appear at the Trial on the Landlord's Petition by Owner for Restitution, the Landlord can request the Court to enter a Default Judgment against the Tenant. (See Motions pamphlet.) A Default Judgment means that the Landlord automatically wins the case and is usually awarded the dollar amount and relief requested in the Petition by Owner for Restitution. Similarly, if the Landlord fails to respond to and/or does not appear at the Trial on the Tenant's Petition, then the Tenant can ask the Judge for a Default Judgment against the Landlord.

Therefore, if a Tenant wants to protect his/her rights, even if the Tenant moves out of the Residence before the Court date, it is extremely important that the Tenant respond to the Landlord's Petition and appear at the Trial.

WHEN MUST A TENANT MOVE?

If a Judgment for Restitution is entered in favor of the Landlord, then the Judge will set an Eviction date. The Eviction date will probably be not less than 3 days and not more than 7 days from the Trial/Court date. If the Tenant does not move out by the Eviction date set by the Judge, then the Landlord can ask the Court clerk to issue a Writ of Restitution ordering the Sheriff to remove the Tenant from the Residence. After the clerk has issued the Writ of Restitution, the Landlord may deliver the Writ to the Sheriff's Office. The Sheriff will then go to the Residence and evict the Tenant.

WHAT IF THERE IS A FORECLOSURE?

If the Residence is in foreclosure, the Tenant may be entitled to additional notice before the Tenant has to move out. For more information see the "Protecting Tenants at Foreclosure Act of 2009," which was signed into law by President Obama on May 20, 2009.
